13 (b) The commission shall terminate on December 31, 2011.

14 (c) The commission shall administer and determine the disposition 15 of the Connecticut Economic Recovery Fund created in section 3 of this 16 act. Any grant approved from such fund shall be by a majority vote of 24 and shall schedule all meetings. Meetings shall be held monthly, and 25 special meetings may be held if called by the Treasurer, or by written 26 request signed by two-thirds of the commission membership and 27 delivered to the Treasurer. The agenda for each meeting shall be sent 28 to all members not later than one week prior to the meeting. All 29 meetings shall be open to the public.

30 (2) The commission shall appoint a secretary who shall be 31 responsible for keeping complete records of the commission, including

70 grantee certifications as follows: (1) Funds granted shall be 71 contractually committed not later than thirty days after grant approval 72 by the commission and construction shall commence not later than 81 buildings or capital equipment.

82 (c) Grants shall be awarded based upon the certifications in

110 (f) The commission may cause an audit to be performed on all 111 grants, including grants under the municipal and regional block grant

112 strategic components, to ensure compliance with stated goals and 113 certifications, and may, if cause is found to exist and a majority of the 114 commission so votes, reduce current or future grants.

115 Sec. 3. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2009) (a) There is established a fund to 116 be known as the "Connecticut Economic Recovery Fund". The fund

283 empowers the Connecticut Emergency Economic Investment
284 Commission to authorize bonds for any project or purpose or projects 285 or purposes, and whenever the Connecticut Emergency Economic 286 Investment Commission finds that the authorization of such bonds 287 will be in the best interests of the state, it shall authorize such bonds by 288 resolution adopted by the approving vote of at least a majority of said 289 commission. No such resolution shall be so adopted by the 290 Connecticut Emergency Economic Investment Commission unless it 291 finds that there has been filed with it a report from an inter-agency 292 review committee. Any such resolution so adopted by the Connecticut

324 provided the Connecticut Emergency Economic Investment 325 Commission may delegate to the Treasurer all or any part of the 326 foregoing powers in which event the Treasurer shall exercise such 327 powers until the Connecticut Emergency Economic Investment 328 Commission, by adoption of a resolution prior to exercise of such 329 powers by the Treasurer shall elect to reassume the same. Such powers

337 by this section may be consolidated for the purpose of sale and issued, 338 sold, printed and delivered as a single bond issue.

339 (g) Whenever the Treasurer finds that it is in the best interests of the 340 state to refund bonds issued pursuant to this section, the maturity date 341 of which has not yet occurred, and whether such bonds to be refunded 342 are or are not subject to redemption prior to maturity, refunding bonds 343 of the state may be issued for the purpose of purchasing, paying, 344 funding or refunding such bonds and the interest payable thereon in 345 advance of their maturity, or, if subject to redemption, at such

348 bonds shall be issued unless they are part of an issue described in a 349 bond determination made and signed by the Treasurer in accordance 350 with and pursuant to this subsection of which a copy has been filed 351 with the Connecticut Emergency Economic Investment Commission

354 and the interest installments thereof, to be paid from the proceeds of 355 the refunding bonds and (2) includes a certification of the Treasurer 356 that the state reasonably expects as of the date of the certification to 357 achieve, as a result of the sale of such refunding bonds and the 358 investment and application of the proceeds of such sale, net debt 359 service savings. Upon the issuance of any refunding bonds the 360 proceeds from the sale thereof shall be deemed to have been 361 appropriated and pledged for and shall be used and applied to the 362 purchase, redemption or payment of the bonds to be so refunded 363 including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any 364 interest accrued or to accrue thereon to the date of purchase,

373 amount of a mandatory sinking fund requirement as provided in such 374 contract, and interest is hereby made, and the Treasurer shall pay such 376 the proceeds of refunding bonds issued pursuant to this subsection, 377 such proceeds may be invested in accordance with and subject to the 378 provisions of such bond determination, in obligations of, or 379 guaranteed by, the state or the United States or any agency or 380 instrumentality of the United States or in certificates of deposit or time

389 contracts with the United States of America, the United States Postal 390 Service, banks for cooperatives and the Farmers Home Administration

392 and investment as aforesaid separate and apart from other funds of the 393 state or may be deposited with a trustee in trust for such use, 394 application and investment, upon the execution of the bond 395 determination the Treasurer is authorized to execute contracts for such 396 holding, deposit, use, application and investment of such proceeds.
397 Except as may be provided in the bond determination authorizing 398 refunding bonds pursuant to this subsection, net earnings of 399 investments of proceeds of such refunding bonds not needed for the 400 purpose for which such refunding bonds were authorized shall be 401 deposited in the General Fund. In any such bond determination of the 402 Treasurer authorizing refunding bonds pursuant to this subsection, 403 said Treasurer may include provision for the date or dates of such 404 refunding bonds, the principal amount of such refunding bonds, the 405 maturity date or dates of such refunding bonds and provision relating 409 the interest on such refunding bonds, the form thereof, including 410 execution and issuance to the purchasers, pending preparation of 411 definitive refunding bonds, of temporary bonds without coupons

413 ready for delivery, the denominations and designation of such 414 refunding bonds, registration, conversion and transfer privileges and 415 the terms of redemption with or without premium, the date and 416 manner of sale of such refunding bonds, either public or private, at 430 appropriate or necessary to satisfy the refunding requirements of this 431 subsection.

433 state by the manual or facsimile signatures of at least two of the 448 conditions as the Treasurer shall determine to be in the best interests of 449 the state. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to refunding 450 bonds sold at private sale pursuant to subsection (g) of this section.

451 (j) With the exception of refunding bonds, whenever the 452 Connecticut Emergency Economic Investment Commission has 453 adopted a resolution authorizing bonds, the Treasurer may, pending 454 the issuing of such bonds, issue, in the name of the state, temporary 455 notes and any renewals thereof in anticipation of the proceeds from

486 (n) The Connecticut Emergency Economic Investment Commission
487 may make representations and agreements for the benefit of the 488 holders of any bonds, notes or other obligations of the state which are

491 Revenue Code of 1986 or any subsequent corresponding internal 492 revenue code of the United States, as from time to time amended,

516 of the United States, as from time to time amended, in the gross 517 income of the holders or owners of such bonds, refunding bonds, other 521 public interest.

522 (p) The Connecticut Emergency Economic Investment Commission
523 may establish the interest rate or rates payable upon any loans

535 (q) Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, bonds, 536 refunding bonds, notes or other obligations in anticipation thereof 537 authorized and issued under this section may include contract 538 provisions for (1) the payment of interest either (A) at certain rates in 539 the event such interest is excludable from the gross income of the 540 holders or owners thereof under the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, or 541 any subsequent corresponding internal revenue code of the United 542 States, as from time to time amended, or (B) at certain other rates in the 543 event such interest is includable in the gross income of the holders or 546 as from time to time amended, (2) the payment by the state of such 547 costs and expenses as may be incurred by the holders or owners of 548 such obligations pursuant to the contract with the state as a result 549 thereof, and (3) other terms as the Treasurer shall determine to be in 550 the best interests of the state. As part of the contract of the state with

552 amounts necessary for the punctual payment of any amounts required 553 to be paid pursuant to any such contract provisions is hereby made 554 and the Treasurer shall pay such amounts as aforesaid as the same 555 becomes due.

556 (r) The Connecticut Emergency Economic Investment Commission
557 may make representations and agreements for the benefit of the 558 holders of bonds, notes or other obligations of the state, or with respect 559 to which the state is an obligated person, to provide secondary market

567 (s) The state shall protect and save harmless any official or former

568 official of the state from financial loss and expense, including legal fees 569 and costs, if any, arising out of any claim, demand, suit or judgment by 570 reason of alleged negligence on the part of such official, while acting in 571 the discharge of his or her official duties, in providing secondary 572 market disclosure information or performing any other duties set forth 573 in any agreement to provide secondary market disclosure information.
574 Nothing in this section shall be construed to preclude the defense of 575 governmental immunity to any such claim, demand or suit. For 576 purposes of this subsection "official" means any person elected or 577 appointed to office or any state employee. This subsection shall not 578 apply to cases of wilful and wanton fraud.

579 (t) Notwithstanding any provision of the general statutes, public 580 acts or special acts, upon any sale, lease or other disposition to or use 581 by a nongovernmental entity of all or a portion of any project financed 582 with proceeds of bonds of the state the interest on which is not 583 included in gross income pursuant to Section 103 of the Internal 584 Revenue Code of 1986, or any subsequent corresponding internal 585 revenue code of the United States, as from time to time amended, that 586 would otherwise cause such bonds to be treated as private activity 587 bonds within the meaning of Section 141 of said internal revenue code, 588 the Treasurer is authorized to transfer all or a portion of the proceeds 589 received with respect to and at the time of such disposition or use, in 590 an amount not less than the amount required by said internal revenue 591 code to preserve the exclusion from gross income of interest on such 592 bonds, (1) to the General Fund to pay debt service on, including 593 redemption, defeasance or purchase of, outstanding bonds of the state 594 the interest on which is not included in gross income pursuant to 595 Section 103 of said internal revenue code, (2) with the approval of the 596 Connecticut Emergency Economic Investment Commission, in lieu of 597 the issuance of bonds, to the appropriate account or fund for any 598 projects or purposes authorized by the Connecticut Emergency 599 Economic Investment Commission pursuant to section 4 of this act and 600 with the same force and effect as bond proceeds, thereby reducing the 601 authority to issue bonds by such dollar amount, provided in any event

602 that any such transfer does not cause the interest on the subject bonds
603 to become included in gross income pursuant to Section 103 of said 604 internal revenue code.

605 Sec. 6. (NEW) (Effective July 1, 2009) (a) Provisions of this section 606 shall apply to general obligation bonds or notes issued pursuant to 612 of bonds, notes or other obligations required by the holder thereof to 613 be redeemed or repurchased prior to maturity or for providing 614 additional security for such bonds, notes or other obligations. In 615 connection therewith, with the authorization of the Connecticut

616 Emergency Economic Investment Commission, the State Treasurer 617 may enter into reimbursement agreements, remarketing agreements, 618 standby bond purchase agreements and any other necessary or 619 appropriate agreements on behalf of the state. The Connecticut 620 Emergency Economic Investment Commission may, at its discretion, 621 authorize the State Treasurer to pledge the full faith and credit of the 622 state, to the extent the full faith and credit of the state is pledged to 623 secure the bonds or notes for which the liquidity or credit facility is 624 obtained, or to pledge the collateral that secures the applicable bonds 625 or notes, to the state's payment obligations under any agreement 626 entered into pursuant to this section. As part of the contract of the state 627 with the other parties to any agreement entered into pursuant to this 628 section for which the full faith and credit of the state is pledged to the 629 state's payment obligations under such agreement, appropriation of all 630 amounts necessary for the punctual payment of the obligations of the 631 state under any such agreement is hereby made and the State 632 Treasurer shall pay such amounts as the same become due. The initial 633 costs of such agreements may be paid from the accrued interest and 634 premium received on the sale of such bonds.

635 (c) In connection with or incidental to the carrying of bonds or notes 636 or in connection with or incidental to the sale and issuance of bonds or 637 notes, the State Treasurer, with the authorization of the Connecticut 638 Emergency Economic Investment Commission, may enter into such 639 contracts as the State Treasurer may determine to be necessary or 640 appropriate to place the obligation of the state, as represented by the 641 bonds or notes, in whole or in part, on such interest rate or cash flow 642 basis as the State Treasurer may determine, including without 643 limitation, interest rate swap agreements, insurance agreements, 644 forward payment conversion agreements, futures contracts, contracts 645 providing for payments based on levels of, or changes in, interest rates 646 or market indices, contracts to manage interest rate risk, including 647 without limitation interest rate floors or caps, options, puts, calls and 648 similar arrangements. Such contracts shall contain such payment, 649 security, default, remedy and other terms and conditions as the State 650 Treasurer may deem appropriate and shall be entered into with such 651 party or parties as the State Treasurer may select, after giving due 652 consideration, where applicable, for the creditworthiness of the 653 counter party or counter parties, including any rating by a nationally 654 recognized rating agency, the impact on any rating on outstanding 655 bonds or notes or any other criteria as the State Treasurer may deem 656 appropriate, provided the unsecured long-term obligations of the 657 counter party are rated the same or higher than the underlying rating 658 of the state on the applicable bonds or notes by at least one nationally 659 recognized rating agency. The Connecticut Emergency Economic 660 Investment Commission may, at its discretion, authorize the State 661 Treasurer to pledge the full faith and credit of the state, to the extent 662 the full faith and credit of the state is pledged to secure the applicable 663 bonds or notes, or to pledge all or any part of the collateral that secures 664 the applicable bonds or notes, to the state's payment obligations under 665 any contract entered into pursuant to this section. As part of the 666 contract of the state with the other parties to any agreement entered 667 into pursuant to this section for which the full faith and credit of the 668 state is pledged to the state's payment obligations under such

669 agreement, appropriation of all amounts necessary for the punctual 670 payment of the obligations of the state under any such agreement is 671 hereby made and the State Treasurer shall pay such amounts as the 672 same become due. The initial costs of such contracts may be paid from 673 the accrued interest and premium received on the sale of such bonds.
